Karaoke Idol Contest Showcase Rules

First and foremost the rule is to have a fun time and enjoy great interactive entertainment.
This will be a 10 week contest, consisting of eight weeks of qualifying rounds followed by a semi-final round during week 9 and then a contest final during week 10. The semi-finals will be between the winners of the eight weeks (eight contestants). Final week will be the final four sing off for positioning of prizes. Karaoke Idol will be hosted by the 302 West Smokehouse Tavern and Restaurant in Fryeburg. The contest starts on Tuesday July 7th and continues every Tuesday evening starting at 9pm and ending at 11:30pm. and Semi-finals will be on September 1st with the finals and winners announced on Tuesday Sept 8th. Once a person wins one of the qualifying contests, he or she advances to the semi-finals. Contestants may continue to compete as many weeks as they wish until they win for the qualifying round. At that time qualified singers may sing on following weeks only as entertainment and to gain popularity and following if time allows and only if their is not a contestant entry at that time. You can only win one semi-final. This gives contestants eight opportunities to compete for the finals.

Each qualifying night participants will sign in starting at 8:30. Contestants may sing more than once ONLY if there are no new participants signed in and there is time left in the evening. Sign-ups will be on a first come first served basis. The signup sheet will be available at 8:30pm each Tuesday. Singers must select only from the Karaoke Jockey's extensive song list.

KJ, 302 West Smokehouse, and/or the judges reserve the right to disqualify or remove participant from the competition at their discretion for undesirable behavior, profanity, abuse, improper handling of equip or any other reason that warrants such actions. Stage MC reserves the right to control and enforce rules and use of equipment of stage area.

Judges

Judges will be selected that have a professional knowledge of music. Professional singers, professional band members, music teachers, vocal coaches, recording engineers etc. Each Tuesday there will be three qualifying judges and judges may vary from week to week. Contact or conversation be not be allowed between the judges and the contestants.

Who can participate?

This is a singing contest open to all skill ranges and ages, however no one under the age of 21 may be in the establishment after the hours of 10PM without parental or guardian supervision. Employees and immediate family members of the 302 West Smokehouse, Explosive Entertainment, and/or of the judges, sponsors or affiliates of the event do not qualify to participate.

Entry Fee:

- Each singer pays $2 for each performance during the eight weeks of contest whether they are part of the competition or just singing for exposure and/or fun.
- Sept 1st: Each of the 8 semi-finalists will be required to sing 2 songs (one by choice of the judges, one by choice of the singer)
- Sept 8th: Each of the 4 Finalist will be required to sing three songs (TBD)
